Offers In Excess Of £270,000

A spacious three bedroom semi-detached Airey Waites house, situated within a quiet cul-de-sac location in the village of Bourton, backing onto open fields and enjoying a good degree of privacy. This property is available to cash buyers only. The property offers flexible and well proportioned accommodation, along with excellent potential for multi-generational living or additional income.

The home has been improved by the current owners in recent years, including the installation of a modern kitchen, updated flooring and the addition of 18 wholly owned solar panels, which are approximately three years old and contribute to the property's energy efficiency. The overall layout provides a versatile living environment, well suited to a range of buyers.

A particular feature of the property is the annexe potential, offering the possibility of generating an income of approximately £850 per calendar month, with its own private garden space and independent feel. This adds a valuable and adaptable element to the property, whether for extended family or rental purposes.

The property occupies a pleasant position backing onto privately owned fields, which are not permitted for development, providing reassurance of the outlook and an attractive semi-rural feel.

Please note the property is of non-standard construction (Airey Waites) and is therefore suitable for cash buyers only.

Accommodation

Inside

Ground Floor

The property is entered via an entrance hall, which provides access to the principal ground floor rooms. The main sitting/dining room is well proportioned and enjoys good natural light, creating a comfortable space for both everyday living and entertaining. In addition, there is a further spacious sitting room to the rear, offering a versatile reception area that could be used as a family room, formal dining space or additional lounge, depending on requirements, making it particularly well suited to multi-generational living. The kitchen has been updated with a modern Wren kitchen, fitted with high-gloss units and laminate work surfaces, providing a contemporary and practical space with a good amount of storage and preparation area, along with room for freestanding appliances. Also on the ground floor is a shower room and an additional room, which could be utilised as a bedroom, study or incorporated into an annexe-style arrangement, offering excellent flexibility for extended family or potential income.

First Floor

Stairs rise to the first floor landing, where the sense of space continues. There are three well-proportioned bedrooms, all offering comfortable and versatile accommodation. The principal bedroom is a generous double with space for wardrobes and additional furniture, while the remaining bedrooms are well suited to family living, guests or home working, with two of the rooms benefiting from built-in storage. A family bathroom serves this level, completing the first floor and providing a functional and well-arranged space for everyday use.

Outside

Gardens

The rear garden enjoys a good degree of privacy and backs directly onto open fields, offering a pleasant outlook and semi-rural feel, and is mainly laid to lawn providing a generous space for outdoor seating, recreation or further landscaping, with the added benefit of a separate garden area serving the annexe, allowing for a degree of independence and making it well suited for dual occupancy or potential rental use.

Parking

To the front of the property there is ample off-road parking, providing space for multiple vehicles and ease of access.
