Due to the size of the property, the sale is available to cash buyers only

Whites Estates and Town & Country Property Auctions are delighted to offer For Sale by Public Auction this excellent opportunity to acquire a well-presented studio apartment in the popular The Spire development on St Michaels Road, ideally positioned in the heart of Bournemouth Town Centre.

The property is being sold with a tenant in situ currently paying £725 pcm, providing an immediate rental income stream for an investor looking to acquire an established buy-to-let property.

The accommodation comprises a generously proportioned open-plan bedroom/lounge area, modern fitted kitchen and contemporary shower room.

The integrated kitchen is fitted with modern units complemented by wood-effect worktops, an integrated electric oven and cooker, together with ample cupboard storage.

The open-plan bedroom/lounge provides a surprisingly spacious living area, comfortably accommodating a double bed together with a sofa and lounge furniture. The room benefits from neutral decor and generous window, which floods the room with natural light and enhances the feeling of space.

The modern shower room comprises a shower with sliding door, WC and wash basin with vanity unit. White tiled walls, patterned tiled flooring and a fitted wall mirror complete the contemporary finish.

Investment Opportunity

With a tenant already in occupation and currently paying £725 pcm (£8,700 per annum), the property offers buyers the opportunity to acquire an established rental investment without the usual void period associated with vacant property.

The combination of an established rental income and a highly convenient Bournemouth location makes this an attractive proposition for landlords seeking a well-positioned town-centre investment.

The property is ideally situated on St Michaels Road, within easy walking distance of Bournemouth Town Centre and the extensive range of shops, restaurants, cafes and leisure facilities on offer.

The award-winning Bournemouth beach and seafront are approximately a five-minute walk away, providing access to the famous coastline, promenade and extensive leisure facilities.

Excellent local transport links are also readily available, providing convenient access throughout Bournemouth and the surrounding areas.

The property will be entered into our 28th October auction which is held online and starts at 10am. You must register to bid and download the legal pack.
