7 LORING ROAD

An exciting opportunity to acquire a three-bedroom bungalow in a sought-after Salcombe location, offering exceptional potential for modernisation and enhancement. Coming to the market for the first time in over 30 years, this charming property presents the perfect canvas to create a superb family home, stylish second residence, or lucrative holiday let.

Situated on Loring Road, the property enjoys a convenient position within easy reach of Salcombe town centre, as well as local amenities including a school, post office/shop, and the popular Salcombe swimming pool. The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance porch leading into a kitchen overlooking the garden. A glazed door opens into a generous and light-filled sitting room, featuring a stone fireplace and sliding patio doors that provide direct access to the rear garden. The ground floor also benefits from a spacious double bedroom and a family bathroom.

Upstairs, a bright staircase leads to two further bedrooms, currently arranged as a double and a twin. One of the rooms enjoys a large window with attractive views towards the Kingsbridge Estuary.

Externally, the property is of traditional brick construction and is set within both front and secure rear gardens, with established shrubs providing privacy and character. An attached garage offers excellent storage or parking, ideal for a boat or outdoor equipment, and is complemented by an additional separate store. There is also additional parking on the driveway through the metal gates.
