Eglos Road, Shortlanesend

Location

Guide Price £395,000 Freehold

Property Introduction

Located within the popular village of Shortlanesend and occupying a generous corner plot is this delightful extended semi-detached family home enjoying countryside views from the rear elevation. Over the years, the current owners have invested a great deal of time to create a wonderful contemporary living environment, enjoying a great deal of natural light and is now offered for sale as a move-in ready family home. A bright entrance hallway accesses a large reception room with a multi-fuel burner and uPVC double glazed doors leading out to the garden, while one of the many features of the property is the spacious kitchen/diner which boasts an array of built-in storage cupboards and integrated appliances with further double glazed doors accessing the garden and this creates a wonderful family room and a space to entertain. The high standard of presentation continues on the first floor with four generous size bedrooms and a bathroom, while from the first floor can be enjoyed a rural outlook over surrounding fields. Externally, to the front is a single garage with parking immediately in front, while a pathway gives access to the property. The generous, mature and landscaped rear garden is an absolute delight with an extensive paved patio, lawn and a good range of mature shrubs and trees along with a useful insulated garden room/home office ideal for hobbies, a home office or a place to unwind.

Shortlanesend is a popular village approximately two and a half miles from the many shops and amenities of the city centre. The village has a friendly community spirit with a primary school which enjoys an excellent reputation, Public House 'The Plough Inn' and a general store/Post Office. The majestic north and south coasts are both within a reasonable travelling distance - the former famed for its rugged coastal walks and surfing beaches, while the latter is perfect for water sports, such as kayaking and windsurfing. Truro itself has a variety of restaurants, cafes and commercial outlets with its cobbled streets and Georgian architecture making it a popular destination for both locals and visitors to enjoy.
