

Bridge Street, Christchurch, BH23 1BL

£450,000

A gorgeous, detached barn conversion in this exclusive enclave in the heart of Christchurch. Set behind electric security gates and forming part of this delightful, courtyard style development, this stunning property carefully fuses original character features with modern style fittings and enjoys a lovely outlook towards the castle ruins.

The current owners have meticulously refurbished this property and have altered the first floor to now incorporate a stylish cathedral style dormer that really enhances the living space and also leads to a south facing balcony. The inside has been sympathetically updated and now features stylish fittings throughout with light and airy living space and immaculate décor with the outside space including a super balcony, private courtyard, storage shed, communal gardens and two allocated parking spaces. This is a really lovely property that is quite unique in this delightful development for Over 55's only.
