The Property

 Circa 1590 SQFT living space excluding basement  Nestled in the charming and sought-after area of Bridge Street, this beautifully presented and bright three-bedroom terrace property offers an exceptional standard of living across three spacious floors. The property has been thoughtfully refurbished to combine period charm with modern functionality, designed for both everyday living and entertaining. The ground floor welcomes you with a stunning kitchen/dining area. Highlights include a polished concrete floor and high-spec integrated appliances, including a 'Miele' hob with extraction over and Neff ovens, blending style with practicality. To the front of the property, the tastefully decorated living room features exposed timber flooring and decorative fireplace. Upstairs, the first-floor landing is a real showpiece, generously sized and flooded with natural light from three large 'Velux' windows. Exposed timber flooring continues throughout, offering access to two well-appointed double bedrooms. The master bedroom benefits from a modern en-suite, while the second double bedroom is served by a stylishly remodelled family bathroom. Both bathrooms are fitted with 'Hansgrohe' showers, reflecting the quality and attention to detail seen throughout the home. The second floor is a versatile, multi-purpose room, meticulously designed to be bright and airy. This spacious area benefits from four large 'Velux' windows, allowing natural light to flood in while offering elevated views over Kinder and Chinley Churn. A large cellar provides useful storage space with internal access. Externally, a private and enclosed rear courtyard provides an inviting outdoor space to enjoy with family and friends.
