Warwick Road, Earls Court

£1,600 Per Month

A beautifully located self-contained studio in the heart of Earls Court, offering a bright and well-designed living space with an open-plan layout, excellent natural light, and smart built-in storage. The apartment also benefits from a private bathroom for added convenience.

Situated in one of London's most vibrant and well-connected areas, Earls Court offers a fantastic selection of cafés, restaurants, and shops, with the bustling streets of Kensington and Chelsea just moments away. Earls Court Station (District & Piccadilly Lines) is within easy reach, providing excellent transport links across London, including direct access to Heathrow Airport. The area is also home to beautiful garden squares, local parks, and cultural attractions, making it an ideal location for both work and leisure. Great for students and professionals.
