About the property

Situated in a convenient location on West Street, Bargoed, this immaculate two-bedroom mid-terrace property is an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, couples, small families or those looking to downsize.

Beautifully presented throughout, the property offers comfortable accommodation and is ready for its new owners to move straight in. An additional feature is the loft room, providing useful extra space with potential for a variety of uses, subject to any necessary consents.

A particular highlight is the spacious garage to the rear, currently utilised as a workshop. This versatile space offers excellent potential for hobbyists, DIY enthusiasts or those requiring additional storage, adding further practicality and appeal to the property.

The two bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, while the loft room offers added flexibility to suit individual needs.

Ideally positioned within Bargoed, the property offers convenient access to local amenities and everyday facilities.

Further enhancing its appeal, the property is offered for sale with no onward chain, potentially allowing for a smoother purchasing process.
