Danforth Drive, Framlingham

A spacious detached house within walking distance from the town centre of Framlingham. The mid Suffolk market town of Framlingham can be traced to an entry in the Domesday Book (1086). The medieval Framlingham Castle is a major feature and tourist attraction for the area, along with its historic market place and eclectic range of buildings, variety of shops, cafes and restaurants. The town is home to the comprehensive secondary Thomas Mills High School and the independent school Framlingham College. The nearby town of Saxmundham (8 miles) has a railway station and connects to the A12 and the Suffolk Heritage Coast.

DESCRIPTION

Situated in a ????? cul-de-sac within easy walking distance of the town centre, this well-presented detached family home is offered for sale with no onward chain, making it an ideal choice for a smooth and straightforward move.

Set back from the road and screened by mature hedgerow and shrubs, the property enjoys a high degree of privacy. A lawned front garden and driveway to the side provide ample off-road parking and access to the garage.

The accommodation benefits from gas-fired central heating and double glazing throughout. An inviting entrance hall leads into a particularly spacious sitting/dining room, filled with natural light from large windows and patio doors that open into a double-glazed conservatory—perfect for enjoying views of the secluded rear garden.

The kitchen, positioned at the front of the property, has been stylishly re-fitted with a range of contemporary gloss-finished units complemented by composite work surfaces. It includes an integrated sink, freestanding oven with stainless steel cooker hood, and space for an automatic washing machine. Windows overlook the front garden, while a useful side door opens onto the driveway.

A second reception room, also overlooking the front garden, offers excellent flexibility and could be used as a third bedroom. This is complemented by a ground floor shower room, adding to the home's versatility.

Upstairs, the landing features a large storage cupboard and a window to the front. There are two generously sized double bedrooms, both with built-in wardrobes and views over the rear garden. The principal bedroom also benefits from access to a spacious eaves storage area. A family bathroom completes the accommodation.

Overall, this is an appealing and versatile home, ideally located within a popular market town and well suited to family living.
