A CHARACTERFUL PERIOD PENTHOUSE SUITE WITH EXCEPTIONAL COUNTRYSIDE VIEWS

An impressive top-floor period penthouse offering almost 2,000 sq ft of beautifully presented accommodation, with three bedrooms, three bathrooms, a substantial open-plan living, dining, and kitchen space, and a large terrace balcony overlooking open fields and rolling hills. The period property also boasts a garage - a rare commodity for an apartment.

Accessed via its own entrance within an attractive cobbled courtyard, the penthouse combines period character with tasteful, neutral décor. Formerly White Castle Brewery, character features such as arched windows, exposed timber beams, timber floorboards, and vaulted ceilings give the property a distinctive sense of history while the generous proportions provide the comfort and flexibility of a substantial modern home.

ENTRANCE HALL

Accessed via the apartment's own entrance, a flight of steps leads to the main hallway, which has timber floorboards and useful cupboards providing storage for coats, shoes, and household items.

OPEN-PLAN LIVING, DINING, AND KITCHEN

The impressive open-plan space forms the heart of the home, with generous proportions allowing the living, dining, and kitchen areas to flow naturally together.

The first thing that catches the eye is the stunning outlook across open fields and rolling hills, currently with horses grazing in the fields beyond. A large picture window and glazed sliding doors maximise the views, with the doors opening directly onto the substantial terrace balcony. Two characterful arched windows add further architectural interest, while timber floorboards continue throughout.

KITCHEN AREA

The kitchen has a timeless feel, with cream-coloured wall, drawer, and base units complemented by warm wooden worksurfaces. A substantial central island incorporates breakfast bar seating for four, creating a natural place for casual meals and conversation.

Integrated appliances include a TECNIK range cooker, extractor hood, Belfast sink, dishwasher, and fridge freezer.

LIVING AREA

The living area has plenty of space for comfortable seating and features a built-in media unit with shelving and space for a television.

With the countryside visible from the main living space, it is a room that feels particularly connected to its surroundings.

DINING AREA

A generous dining area provides ample room for a large dining table and chairs, making this a versatile space for everyday family meals and entertaining.

FAMILY BATHROOM

A spacious bathroom with a freestanding bath and shower head attachment, alongside a separate rainfall shower with manoeuvrable attachment. There is a washbasin set within a cupboard unit, built-in storage cupboards, and a heated towel rail.
