Albany Road

No Chain. Great Investment. Potential Rental Income: £2,500pcm or 8% Gross Yield. A handsome semi-detached house in the heart of Roath, currently configured as two self-contained two-bedroom flats under one freehold. The property has been previously rented out as two separate accommodations, offering an excellent opportunity for an investor or a buyer seeking a flexible living arrangement.

In the heart of Roath, Cardiff, this mid-terrace house offers a rare blend of versatility and character. Set along a sought-after street known for its Victorian architecture, the property has been thoughtfully refreshed throughout and is currently split into two self-contained flats, each radiating light and warmth. Original features such as coved ceilings, bay windows, and decorative fireplaces provide timeless charm, complemented by practical modern fittings in the kitchens and bathrooms.

Roath is celebrated for its vibrant community, with boutique shops, cafes, and restaurants lining Albany Road, just moments from this home. The nearby Roath Park offers a 130-acre green oasis with a boating lake, botanical gardens, and recreational facilities, perfect for leisurely weekends. Excellent local schools, including Marlborough Primary and Roath Park Primary, cater to families, while Cardiff city centre is within easy reach for employment and cultural pursuits. Excellent transport links via local bus routes and Cardiff Central station ensure swift connections across the city and beyond.

The property presents both a unique investment opportunity and the potential for multigenerational living, combining comfort, flexibility, and a location celebrated for its charm and convenience.
