Guide Price £550,000 - £575,000

Marriott Vernon welcome to the market this beautifully presented, extended four bedroom terraced family home with off street parking and private garden, ideally situated in the heart of South Croydon, just a short walk from South Croydon station and local amenities. The property has been superbly upgraded and extended, offering bright and spacious accommodation laid out over three floors, with stylish interiors and modern design throughout. Set within a popular well-maintained development, with features including an inviting reception room, separate extended kitchen/dining room, three bath/shower rooms (one en-suite), WC, gas central heating and double glazing.

Accommodation comprises entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor, leading into the bright front aspect reception room with ample space for relaxing and entertaining. The separate kitchen/dining room, flooded with natural light from overhead skylight window and bi-folding doors spilling out onto the garden, comprises a modern range of matching wall and base units with work surfaces incorporating inset sink unit, hob with overhead extractor, electric oven and further space for appliances. To the first floor, there are two well proportioned bedrooms, plus a shower room, whilst the second floor provides two bedrooms (one en-suite) and a family bathroom. Additionally the loft space with Velux window is used by the owners as an office space, accessed via a drop down ladder.

The property is superbly located within easy access of South Croydon station, providing convenient links into Central London. Croydon town centre is moments away, with its array of shops and amenities, whilst South Croydon's 'Restaurant Quarter' is close-by for a diverse selection of bars and restaurants. The area is also well served by excellent schools.
