PRE AUCTION OFFERS

On this occasion the vendors will NOT be considering pre auction offers.

THE PROPERTY

A Freehold Grade II Listed period property understood to date from the early 19th century, and comprises Flemish bond brickwork facades, with tripartite sashed windows under a tile roof. A tent-hood lead canopy covers the full width of the ground floor property frontage, with cast iron decorative cresting to the outer edge.

The property benefits from a private (communal) garden to the rear.

The accommodation is arranged over 4 floors (basement, ground, first, second and third) and is accessed off Church Street via a communal doorway into an alleyway running the full depth of the property to the rear garden. Off the alley way is the main door into the ground floor hallway, with access to the basement, ground floor flat (18A), first floor flat (18B) and the upper maisonette (18C).

We're instructed the property will be vacated by completion – please check the legal pack prior to the auction for any updates

BUYER'S PREMIUM

Please be aware all purchasers are subject to a £1,500 + VAT (£1,800 inc VAT) buyer's premium which is ALWAYS payable upon exchange of contracts whether the sale is concluded before, during or after the auction date.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
