Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Situated on the desirable Buxton Road, on the outskirts of the vibrant market town of Leek, this attractive double-fronted detached bungalow presents a fantastic opportunity for those seeking a home with potential in a prime location.

Occupying a generous plot, the property enjoys spacious and well-established front and rear gardens, largely paved for low maintenance, and adorned with mature borders featuring a variety of shrubs and perennials, including beautiful hydrangeas. To the rear, a long driveway provides ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles and leads to a detached single garage, ideal for storage or secure parking.

The bungalow itself requires modernisation throughout, offering a blank canvas for buyers to put their own stamp on the property. Inside, the home retains some charming original features, including parquet flooring in the entrance hall and living room. The living room also benefits from a gas fire and a large bay window overlooking the front garden, creating a bright and welcoming space.

There are two generously proportioned double bedrooms, both offering plenty of space and natural light. To the rear, the kitchen diner overlooks the garden and comes fitted with base units, offering scope for renovation and reconfiguration. A rear porch and side passage further enhance the potential to extend or adapt the layout to suit modern living needs.

Externally, the laundry room can be accessed from the rear of the property.

With its spacious plot, attractive frontage, and enviable position on one of Leek's most popular roads, this bungalow represents a rare opportunity to create a bespoke home in a sought-after location. Ideal for those looking to downsize, invest, or renovate, early viewing is highly recommended.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.

Local Estate Agent Wins Prestigious British Gold Award for Customer Service

Denise White Bespoke Estate Agents has been honored with the esteemed Gold Award 2024 from the British Property Awards for their exceptional customer service and extensive local marketing knowledge in Leek and its surrounding areas.

The British Property Awards, renowned for their inclusivity and comprehensive evaluation process, assess estate agents across the United Kingdom based on their customer service levels and understanding of the local market. Denise White Estate Agents demonstrated outstanding performance throughout the rigorous and independent judging period.

As part of the assessment, the British Property Awards mystery shopped 90% of estate agents nationwide, evaluating their telephone etiquette, responsiveness to emails, promptness in returning missed calls, and, crucially, their expertise in the local marketing area.

The Gold Award is a testament to the estate agents who consistently go above and beyond, delivering exceptional levels of customer service, focusing on their commitment and excellence within the local community.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Checks

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Denise White Estate Agents we are required to complete ID verification checks on all buyers and to apply ongoing monitoring until the transaction ends. Whilst this is the responsibility of Denise White Estate Agents we may use the services of Guild365, to verify Clients' identity. This is not a credit check and therefore will have no effect on your credit history. You agree for us to complete these checks, and the cost of these checks is £30.00 inc. VAT per buyer. This is paid in advance, when an offer is agreed and prior to a sales memorandum being issued. This charge is non-refundable.
