PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

A unique opportunity to purchase this delightful, double fronted Grade II listed cottage situated in the historic village of Mawgan-In-Meneage on the rural outskirts of Helston. Offered for sale for the first time and with no onward chain, the cottage lies in the heart of the village on pretty triangular green know as Mawgan Cross with its pre-twelfth century inscribed stone to the front and open countryside to the rear. Internally. The accommodation comprises an entrance porch, lounge/diner, kitchen, bathroom and two bedrooms, all in need of some refurbishment. Outside enjoys a delightful garden boasting a sunny aspect and far reaching views over rolling fields beyond.

Mawgan-In-Meneage is an attractive little village and parish located at the base of the Lizard Peninsula, between the Helford River and Gunwalloe. There are several excellent walks in the vicinity including the woodland walks down to the Helford river at Mawgan Creek and Tremayne Quay. There is also a public house, bus service, local shop and Garras Primay School.
