

Platan House
Harrington Gardens, SW7

A beautifully presented three bedroom garden apartment set within Platan House, a handsome Grade II listed building of red brick, dating back to circa 1800 in a prime South Kensington setting.

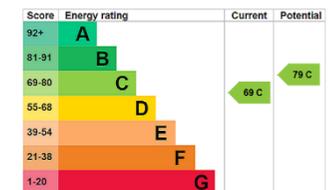

This generous and versatile property is immaculately presented throughout and boasts direct access into the stunning communal gardens via one of the two private patio areas.

The apartment features a welcoming reception/dining room with fireplace and a well-appointed kitchen with doors onto the rear patio. There are three well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal suite with en-suite bathroom, alongside a separate, smart shower room. Furthermore, the front vault area has been converted in a separate utility area with excellent storage, accessed via the second patio and there is under floor heating throughout.

This fantastic property is ideally located just moments from the vibrant shops, restaurants, bars, and excellent transport links of South Kensington and Gloucester Road.
