All The Ingredients Needed For A Fabulous Lifestyle

This well-presented family home offers comfortable, modern living with excellent parking, thoughtful upgrades throughout and clear potential to extend. To the front, there is a generous driveway with parking for three to four vehicles, an electric car charging point, and unrestricted on-street parking. A practical porch provides useful storage and leads into the main accommodation. The modern fitted kitchen, updated within the last two years, features underfloor heating, a water softener, and an externally vented cooker hood. This opens into a bright conservatory, also with underfloor heating, creating an ideal additional living or dining space. The ground floor further benefits from a recently refitted shower room and a separate utility room, housing a modern boiler installed just over a year ago with a 10-year warranty. Upstairs are three bedrooms and a family bathroom with underfloor heating. Two of the bedrooms include fitted wardrobes and bespoke storage, all installed within the last two years. The fully boarded and insulated loft offers excellent storage and scope for conversion, subject to permissions. To the rear, the garden features a fully equipped summer house with lighting and TV connection, plus additional storage. Previously approved planning permission for a two-storey side extension and single-storey rear extension (now expired) can be resubmitted, offering excellent future potential.
