A substantial four bedroom detached Edwardian house set within walking distance of the town centre and offering a wonderful blend of period character and generous living space. The property retains a number of original features, including quarry tiled flooring, bay windows and a classic Edwardian layout with three well proportioned reception rooms.

On entering, you are welcomed by a wide hallway with quarry tile flooring. To the right is a bright sitting room currently used as a dining room. To the left is a generous lounge. Both reception rooms feature attractive bay windows that draw in plenty of natural light. The ground floor also includes useful understairs storage and a downstairs WC.

To the rear, the kitchen is nicely appointed with breakfast bar seating and good workspace. Beyond this is a third reception room currently used as a separate dining room with direct access to the garden.

Upstairs, the property provides four excellent double bedrooms, each with comfortable proportions. The master bedroom is notably spacious and offers built in storage and enough room for a sofa or seating area. Sliding doors open to a Juliet balcony with a lovely outlook over the garden. A family bathroom serves the first floor.

Outside, the garden is a standout feature. It is a large, established space with a pond, patio area and a section planted with fruit trees. The property also benefits from a great sized garage and off road parking.
