Summary of Accommodation

ABOUT THE PROPERTY

Approached from the driveway, the ground floor opens into a practical utility area, with access to both a storeroom and boiler room. From here, stairs rise to the true heart of the home: an impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and living space designed for modern country living. Generously proportioned and wonderfully sociable, this inviting space is ideal for entertaining, while the substantial feature log burner creates a warm and atmospheric focal point for cosy evenings in the Welsh hills. Just off the kitchen, a hallway leads to a ground-floor shower room, a charming sitting room with its own feature fireplace, and a well-appointed ground-floor bedroom, the entrance hall itself can be used as an ancillary kitchen, for potential use as multi-generational living or other opportunities such as Air BnB subject to all necessary planning consents

The first floor is accessed from the kitchen, opening directly into a versatile landing area currently arranged as an artist's studio. This flexible space would lend itself beautifully to use as a study, creative retreat or fourth bedroom, subject to requirements. Continuing along the landing are two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom, completing the accommodation with a comfortable and well-balanced layout.

GARDENS AND GROUNDS

Gelliwrgan Farm is set within approximately four acres of attractive grounds, comprising small paddocks, woodland and established gardens. The gardens are arranged to include both floral and productive vegetable areas, ideal for those seeking a more self-sufficient country lifestyle. With distinct garden sections, meandering walkways and terraced features, the grounds offer an immediate sense of peace and tranquillity.
