

Knockbridge Tractor Shed is a well presented detached fully furnished cottage of brick / block construction with UPVC double glazed windows all beneath a pitched slate tiled roof. The property is accessed from Laurel Lane down Knockbridge Farm track that leads up to the property and metal five bar gate that opens into a front paved garden.

A side front door opens into light open plan kitchen / living / dining room with double aspect windows including French doors leading out to the paved enclosed garden. The kitchen is fitted with a Hague Blue shaker kitchen with laminate worktops, stainless steel sink, integrated microwave, ceramic induction hob, electric oven, integrated slimline dishwasher, washing machine and fridge / freezer.

Accessed from the living room is an inner hallway off which is a master bedroom with king size bed and ensuite bathroom with "P" shaped bath with power shower above and glass shower screen, washbasin with vanity unit below and close coupled WC. A second twin bedroom is also accessed from the inner hallway and opposite a shower room / WC with large walk in power shower, washbasin with vanity unit below and close coupled WC.

Externally the property benefits from an enclosed paved garden that the property enjoys vistas looking over. There is opportunity for the incoming tenant to have horse livery in the adjacent stable yard and there is ample off street parking opposite the property.
