Lovelle offer to market this three-bedroom detached, versatile house in the sought-after village of Scartho, Grimsby, occupying a generous plot with a private rear aspect backing onto allotments. The property benefits from uPVC double glazing, gas central heating and a new boiler installed in 2025, as well as a driveway and garage.

The ground floor offers two reception rooms. A well-presented lounge features a gas fire, dining/family space with doors to the garden, providing an attractive day-to-day living layout and flowing well from the kitchen. The kitchen includes a sink, cooker point and plumbing for a washer. A ground floor double bedroom with built-in wardrobes, in addition to the ground floor modern bathroom which is fitted with a walk-in shower, WC, sink and vanity units, offers flexible and versatile accommodation.

Upstairs, there is a large double bedroom with dual-aspect windows and walk-in storage, plus a further generous bedroom.

Outside, the generous plot provides off-road parking via the driveway leading to the garage, and a rear garden enjoying a private outlook over the allotments.

Scartho village offers local amenities including shops, cafes and everyday services, along with nearby schools suitable for families. Regular bus services run into Grimsby town centre and surrounding areas, with Grimsby Town railway station providing connections to Sheffield, Manchester and beyond, with journey times from around 1 hour 20 minutes to Sheffield. Local parks and green spaces are also accessible, adding to the appeal for families looking for a well-located home with convenient public transport links and amenities.
