53 Coldridge Drive, Herongate, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, SY1 3YT

£195,000

A stylish, two-bedroom mid-terrace house with a refitted bathroom and kitchen, suitable for a variety of purchasers.

A stylish, two-bedroom mid-terrace house which would suit a range of purchasers, including first-time buyers, down-sizers or buy-to-let. Situated in a courtyard setting off Coldridge Drive, with an allocated parking space. The front of the property is set off by a pitched roof porch and a slate bed enclosed by hedging. The property is warmed by gas central heating and has double glazing throughout. The entrance hall leads to the lounge/dining room, a lovely through room with useful understairs storage and patio doors leading onto a good-sized garden. An archway leads to a fully refitted kitchen with white gloss units; integrated electrical appliances include an oven and a 4-ring hob with a steel splashback and filter hood above. A staircase from the hall leads to the landing, and the main double bedroom is to the front with 2 windows, a built-in wardrobe, and a cupboard housing the gas central heating boiler. The second bedroom is also a decent size and overlooks the rear garden. The bathroom, like the kitchen, has been fully refitted by the present owner, with a 3-piece suite, a shower over the bath and extensive tiling. The rear garden is enclosed by fencing, with gated access to the rear, and is approached onto a full-width patio with lawn beyond and timber shed. The property has had an annual gas safety inspection, and the wiring was last inspected in February 2026. The property is offered with no upward chain and is most definitely ready to move into. Herongate is a convenient development to the north of the town centre, and just a mile from the station and well placed for road networks.
