Tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac in the heart of Willesden Green, this unusually large ground floor, end-of-terrace apartment offers a rare sense of lateral living, spanning approximately 847 sq ft. Set within an attractive period building, it combines generous proportions with modern finishes and the added benefit of private, gated off-street parking. The standout space is the impressive open-plan kitchen and reception room, measuring over 6m by 5m. It's a room designed for real life; whether that's cooking, dining, hosting friends or setting up a comfortable work-from-home corner. Large sash windows in a bay and high ceilings enhance the sense of space and light, while wooden flooring underfoot adds warmth and character.
