- Three-bedroom semi-detached home
- Private driveway with off-street parking
- New kitchen installed in 2025
- Modern property
- Landscaped rear garden
- Garage/workshop

Set in the peaceful coastal town of Llanfairfechan, this well-presented three-bedroom family home enjoys a lovely position, with the mountains to the rear and the sea to the front. The property also benefits from private driveway parking and a useful outhouse.

The home has been well cared for and thoughtfully updated in recent years. Improvements include new windows and doors throughout, fitted over the last eight years, new roof soffits installed in 2025 and a new Wren kitchen fitted in 2025. New LVT and carpeted flooring have also been laid throughout.

Outside, the rear garden has been comprehensively landscaped to create an attractive and practical space, ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

Llanfairfechan offers a peaceful coastal lifestyle while remaining well connected for commuting, with good road and rail links to nearby towns and cities. Local schools and places of study are also within easy reach.

A comfortable and well-maintained family home, combining modern improvements with a beautiful setting.
