An utterly charming four-bedroom Victorian family home on Rensburg Road.

This terraced house has bags of kerb appeal, and doesn't disappoint inside. Exceptionally well presented, it blends original period charm with modern family living. With four bedrooms, two bathrooms and a ground floor cloakroom, it's perfectly designed for a growing family.

The ground floor offers generous communal space, laid out for everyday family life. To the front, a bay-windowed reception room has richly toned wood flooring, original cornicing, a decorative ceiling rose, hand-crafted cabinets and a marble fireplace with log burner – the perfect spot for movie night. Wander past the utility room, WC and built-in under-stairs storage to the hub of any home: the kitchen diner. Bi-fold doors and skylights flood it with light and open it straight onto the garden. Quartz worktops and stone flooring with under-floor heating make it as practical as it is handsome – easy to keep clean with a young family. There's ample room to gather for meals, looking over the private rear garden.

On the first floor are two bedrooms and a beautiful four-piece family bathroom with roll-top bath and walk-in rainfall shower. The loft extension adds two further bedrooms, including the principal with generous built-in storage and an en-suite shower room. Period touches run throughout, from original cast-iron fireplaces to plantation shutters.

Outside, the garden has artificial lawn for easy maintenance and border planting, including established fig, damson and gooseberry.

The home is ideally placed for all that Walthamstow offers. The open spaces of Walthamstow Wetlands are on your doorstep – perfect for a stroll. Head the other way for plenty to eat and drink: Crate St James for street food, Weir dough and Beaten by a Whisker for irresistible bread and cakes, plus pubs and bars along the High Street. And when work beckons, St James Street station is a short walk away, making the commute that bit easier.
