The property opens into a wide entrance hall with practical storage for coats and shoes. To the left, the main reception room features a large south facing window that fills the space with natural light, plus a wood-burning stove and exposed beams for added character.

A door leads through to the dining room, and from here into the kitchen and garden room. The kitchen is a generous, open-plan space with an island, Rayburn, and a traditional country feel. There is also a partially separate utility area and an additional dining space, with access to the garden from the utility.

The garden room is triple aspect, and offers flexibility for use, with patio doors opening onto the garden for easy access.

All rooms to the rear of the property benefit from attractive country views across open fields, providing a pleasant outlook throughout. To the right of the property are three double bedrooms, each with built-in storage. The rear bedroom includes an en-suite bathroom with bath and shower. Along the hall, there's also a separate shower room with WC, hand basin, and heated towel rail.

Outside, the landscaped garden is beautifully maintained, featuring mature planting, vegetable patches, and fruit including blueberries and gooseberries. A summer house at the end of the garden and a greenhouse complete the outdoor space. There is driveway parking and a detached garage, with power.

Ash Thomas is a sought-after village offering a friendly community atmosphere and a village hall for local events. The location provides convenient access to the nearby market towns of Cullompton and Tiverton, both of which offer a wide range of amenities including supermarkets, leisure facilities, and schools. Tiverton is also home to the well-regarded Blundell's School.

The property is ideally positioned for commuters, with easy access to the M5 via junctions 27 and 28.
