About the property

Rarely available to the market, this impressive four-bedroom bungalow is discreetly positioned down a private driveway, almost entirely hidden from the road, creating a wonderful sense of seclusion and an oasis-like setting. Deceptively spacious and far larger than first appearances suggest, the property offers generous and versatile accommodation throughout. Although technically semi-detached, it is only adjoined to the neighbouring property via the bedroom area, ensuring the main living spaces remain private and uninterrupted. Internally, the home is presented in excellent condition and offers a well-balanced layout. There are four well-proportioned double bedrooms, alongside a superb 23ft fitted kitchen/diner forming the heart of the home. The comfortable living room features a charming fireplace with a multi-fuel wood burner, while a light and airy utility room adds further practicality. Additional accommodation includes a family bathroom, separate WC cloakroom, and a versatile extra reception room currently arranged as a dining room. This flexible space could easily serve as a home office, playroom, or even be reconfigured to create a substantial principal bedroom by removing the existing partitioning. A truly unique and deceptively spacious home in a tucked-away position — internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all that is on offer.

Outside

The beautifully maintained gardens wrap around the property, providing a tranquil and enclosed outdoor space bordered by mature, well-kept hedging. Predominantly laid to lawn, the gardens are complemented by an attractive paved patio terrace, ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining. The property also benefits from an attached double garage, along with both a formal front entrance and additional rear gate access.
