Anderson Road
Birmingham

Property Description

NO CHAIN Connells are proud to present this stunning 4 bedroom period property, with incredibly restored original features throughout. Situated just 1.5 miles from Boldmere High Street and offering a host of local amenities such as popular restaurants, cafes and supermarkets, this property is superbly located. With Erdington Train Station just 0.6 miles away, you have easy access to Birmingham City Centre and other popular locations. As you enter the property, the stunning original tiled flooring is centre of attention, leading through into two great sized living areas and a stunning kitchen/utility space, all having beautifully restored original features. A good sized garden features to the rear, with paved area for your garden furniture, then a well-established lawn with landscaped hedges. A garden house with running electrics sits at the back of the garden, as well as ample storage with the old brick sheds. The first floor of the property has three great sized bedrooms and a characterful family bathroom, all having those original features, but with a splash of modern with the wooden fitted shutters. The top floor of the home offers an impressively spacious bedroom with built in storage, currently used as a cinema room. This property comes with off-road parking. Viewings highly recommended.
