Primlea Court is an attractive residential development set within beautifully maintained gardens, just a short walk from the heart of the village. Residents benefit from a range of shared amenities, including landscaped communal areas, a guest suite, a welcoming reception area, a laundry room, and secure entry with intercom access. Additional features include lift access and on-site parking, all managed to a high professional standard.

This excellent ground floor property is located in Corbridge, a vibrant and historic village nestled in the scenic Tyne Valley near Hexham. Surrounded by picturesque countryside, Corbridge is one of the most desirable locations within easy reach of Newcastle upon Tyne. The village offers a charming mix of heritage and contemporary living, with local amenities such as independent shops, cafes, restaurants, pubs, healthcare services, and strong public transport links via both bus and train. Convenient road connections are provided by the nearby A69, A68, and A695, giving easy access to regional centres and the wider North East.
