

42 Fairfield Road, London, E17 6EW

Offers in excess of £775,000

A Beautifully Presented Four Bedroom Victorian Home With Stylish Interiors And A West-Facing Garden.

This wonderfully extended mid-terrace house proudly sits on a quite one way street, conveniently located with Lloyd Park to the east and Blackhorse Road to the West. To the front, the property features an attractive brick frontage with a traditional tiled pathway whilst inside, a bay-fronted lounge boasts stripped wooden floors, creating a warm and inviting living area.

To the rear, the home has been extended to offer a stunning open-plan kitchen/diner, flooded with natural light from skylights and bi-fold doors leading directly onto the west-facing garden. The kitchen is a real showstopper, complete with grey quartz worktops, a ceramic butler sink, central island/breakfast bar with ample storage, and an eye-catching exposed brick feature wall – perfect for entertaining or family life.

- Four Bedroom House
- Extended Open Plan Kitchen/Diner
- Beautifully Presented Throughout
- Main Bedroom With En Suite
- West Facing Rear Garden
- 0.5m to Blackhorse Road Station
- Close Proximity To Lloyd Park
- 1220 Sq Ft - 113.3 M2

