

Cherry Tree Cottage Boverton Park Drive

Boverton, Llantwit Major, CF61 1YN

Price £725,000

HARRIS & BIRT

A wonderful Grade II listed Tudor cottage of exceptional character, believed to date from the late 16th century, offering deceptively spacious and versatile accommodation with delightful gardens, parking and garage, situated within the historic village of Boverton. Steeped in history and retaining a wealth of period character, today Cherry Tree Cottage combines this exceptional architectural heritage with comfortable modern living. The accommodation is arranged over two floors and provides considerable flexibility, making the property equally suited to family life, entertaining or those looking for a character home with generous bedroom accommodation. The ground floor comprises an entrance porch, WC, living room, study, bedroom four/snug, kitchen and utility room. The first floor provides three sizeable double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, the property is equally appealing. A pretty walled courtyard provides a charming private outdoor space, while the lawned front garden, enclosed by attractive dry stone wall boundaries, complements the cottage beautifully. A private drive provides parking for two vehicles, together with a garage, offering useful off-road parking and storage.

Cherry Tree Cottage occupies a particularly appealing position within Boverton, a historic village forming part of the wider Llantwit Major community. Nearby Llantwit Major is one of the Vale of Glamorgan's oldest towns, offering a charming blend of history, community and coastal living. The town provides a range of everyday amenities including independent shops, cafés, pubs, leisure facilities and local services, together with schools and a railway station. The historic Old Town is particularly attractive, with traditional stone cottages and buildings, whilst Llantwit Major Beach and the surrounding coastline provide wonderful opportunities for walking and enjoying the outdoors.
