Alexandra Drive, Surbiton, KT5 9AF

An excellent three-bedroom, and loft, two-reception room family home with an exceptionally large mature private garden and driveway with a garage towards the rear. There is scope for updating and extending the Property (subject to the usual consent). Located within easy reach of Surbiton mainline station and high street and with local shops and amenities on the 'doorstep' including a regular bus service into Surbiton and Kingston and easy access to the A3. The many benefits include a lovely front living room with a bay window. There is a coordinated rear living room with French doors opening onto the garden. There is also a fitted kitchen with a door to the garden and a welcoming entrance hallway. On the first floor are two large double bedrooms plus a further good size bedroom. There is a white bathroom suite with a bath, basin and separate shower. Plus a separate WC off the landing. There is a further WC and hand basin on the ground floor. The loft was converted some years ago and could be used as an additional bedroom or an office. The property has gas central heating and double glazing. The private rear garden stretches back approx. 136 feet. There is a traditional front garden with a driveway and gate allowing access to the side and rear of the property. Council tax band F. A lovely family home with excellent potential.
