Cliftonville Mews,
Margate, CT9 2DZ

Discover the charm of this meticulously restored former artist's mews, now transformed into a captivating two-bedroom end terrace property. Spanning three inviting floors, this unique home becomes available in Mid August, promising a distinctive living experience.

As you step inside, you're greeted by an open-plan ground floor layout that sets the tone for spacious living. The lounge area beckons with its welcoming atmosphere, featuring a staircase that gracefully leads upward, while to the front there are two elegant double doors.

The heart of the home, the kitchen area, boasts a central work station adorned with a warm wooden surface, harmonizing beautifully with the side along the rear wall, housing a built-in oven and hob.

Venture upstairs, and you'll discover the generous primary bedroom, thoughtfully positioned at the front of the property, treating you to direct sea views. Also on this level, the family bathroom exudes character with its half-height wood-paneled walls. Here, you can unwind in the bathtub or freshen up at the basin set within a stylish vanity unit. The convenience of a low-level WC and a separate shower cubicle adds to the appeal.

Climbing to the second floor reveals the second bedroom, where a velux window graces the front, offering delightful sea views that make waking up a pleasure. This property promises not just a place to live but a canvas for creating lasting memories by the sea.
