LOCATION

The property enjoys a prominent position within the peaceful and highly regarded village of Old Caldecote, an established and attractive community just 7 miles west of Cambridge and 14 miles east of St Neots. The village is particularly well placed for access to major transport routes, with the A428 providing fast and convenient links to Cambridge, Bedford and beyond, while mainline railway stations at St Neots and Sandy offer regular services into London King's Cross in under an hour, making it ideal for both local and commuter buyers. Old Caldecote itself is a traditional village surrounded by picturesque open countryside, offering a tranquil setting whilst being exceptionally well connected. The village is home to a popular primary school and enjoys easy access to nearby secondary schooling at Comberton Village College, one of the region's most highly regarded state schools. Everyday amenities including shops, cafés, and public houses can be found in neighbouring Caldecote and Bourn, while a wider range of facilities, restaurants and leisure opportunities are available in Cambridge and St Neots. The surrounding countryside offers excellent opportunities for walking, cycling, and riding, with golf and equestrian facilities close at hand, while the proximity to Cambridge ensures access to a wealth of cultural, academic and historic attractions.
