Buyers' Insight

We've truly loved living here for the past ten years and this house has been a wonderful place to call home. The bay window fills the living room with natural light, and the real fire has been the heart of the house on cosy evenings. There are so many original features throughout, each adding to the character and charm that first made us fall in love with it. Being featured in two national house magazines was lovely and a real testament to the house's warmth and individuality.

The courtyard has given us many happy moments – a sunny spot for coffee during the day and a snug, welcoming space in the evenings, lit by festoon lights. Although there's no garage, the large shed has easily held everything we've needed, and the foldaway loft ladder inside leads to a generous attic that's been brilliant for extra storage.

We've been lucky with genuinely friendly neighbours along the terrace, and in over ten years it's been rare not to be able to park right outside, which has always been a real bonus.

One of the things we'll miss most is how easy life is here. Everything we need is just a short walk away – our favourite local pubs (including the Crown Wharf, Great British Pub of the Year 2025), a great mix of restaurants, and handy shops like M&S and Morrisons. There are also lovely green spaces nearby, perfect for walks, runs and fresh air. The train station is less than five minutes from the front door, making travel incredibly easy.

We're only moving due to relocation, and we hope the next owners will love this home as much as we have.
