GUIDE PRICE £160,000 - £180,000.

Perfectly placed on Coronation Avenue in East Tilbury, this two bedroom first floor flat delivers space, convenience and commuter-friendly credentials in equal measure. With local amenities on your doorstep and East Tilbury railway station just moments away — offering direct access to London Fenchurch Street — the morning rush suddenly feels far more manageable.

Step inside and you're greeted by a welcoming entrance hallway that leads through to a lovely size lounge/diner — bright, airy and perfectly suited to everything from relaxed evenings in to hosting friends for dinner. The well-appointed kitchen is neatly arranged with practical workspace and storage, ready for anything from ambitious home cooking to quick midweek meals.

Two good size bedrooms provide flexibility for modern living, whether you need a guest room, home office or simply extra breathing space. The bathroom is well presented and functional, completing a layout that works effortlessly day to day.

Practical upgrades add even more appeal, including new double glazed windows installed circa 2022 and a new fuseboard fitted around May 2024 — because peace of mind is always in style. With approximately 88 years remaining on the lease, this is a solid opportunity for first-time buyers, investors or downsizers looking for a smart move in a well-connected location.

In short: great space, great location, sensible upgrades — and a flat that makes everyday living feel refreshingly straightforward.
