

20 Britten Street, Chelsea, London, SW3 3TU

Nestled in the vibrant heart of Chelsea, this compact yet expertly designed London home offers an exquisite blend of comfort and sophistication. With underfloor heating throughout, it ensures a warm welcome, no matter the season. The bespoke staircase, a centerpiece in its own right, leads you to the first-floor bedroom. Here, functionality meets luxury with a cleverly retractable bed, transforming the space at a moment's notice. The inclusion of an LG projector and Bose soundbar elevates your audio-visual experience, creating an unparalleled home cinema environment.

Despite its compact footprint, the home boasts a large amount of storage space, ensuring that every item has its place, contributing to the property's sleek and uncluttered aesthetic. The views over St Luke's Gardens add a serene backdrop to this urban oasis, offering a tranquil space to unwind.

The property's rooftop area is a hidden gem, providing a private retreat for those summer evenings under the city skyline. Whether for entertaining or solitude, this space promises memorable moments above the bustling streets below.

Located mere steps from an array of bars, restaurants, and shops, this home situates you at the centre of Chelsea's renowned lifestyle. Coupled with ideal transport links, the city's attractions are within easy reach, making this home

£2,600 PCM

