ABOUT THE HOME

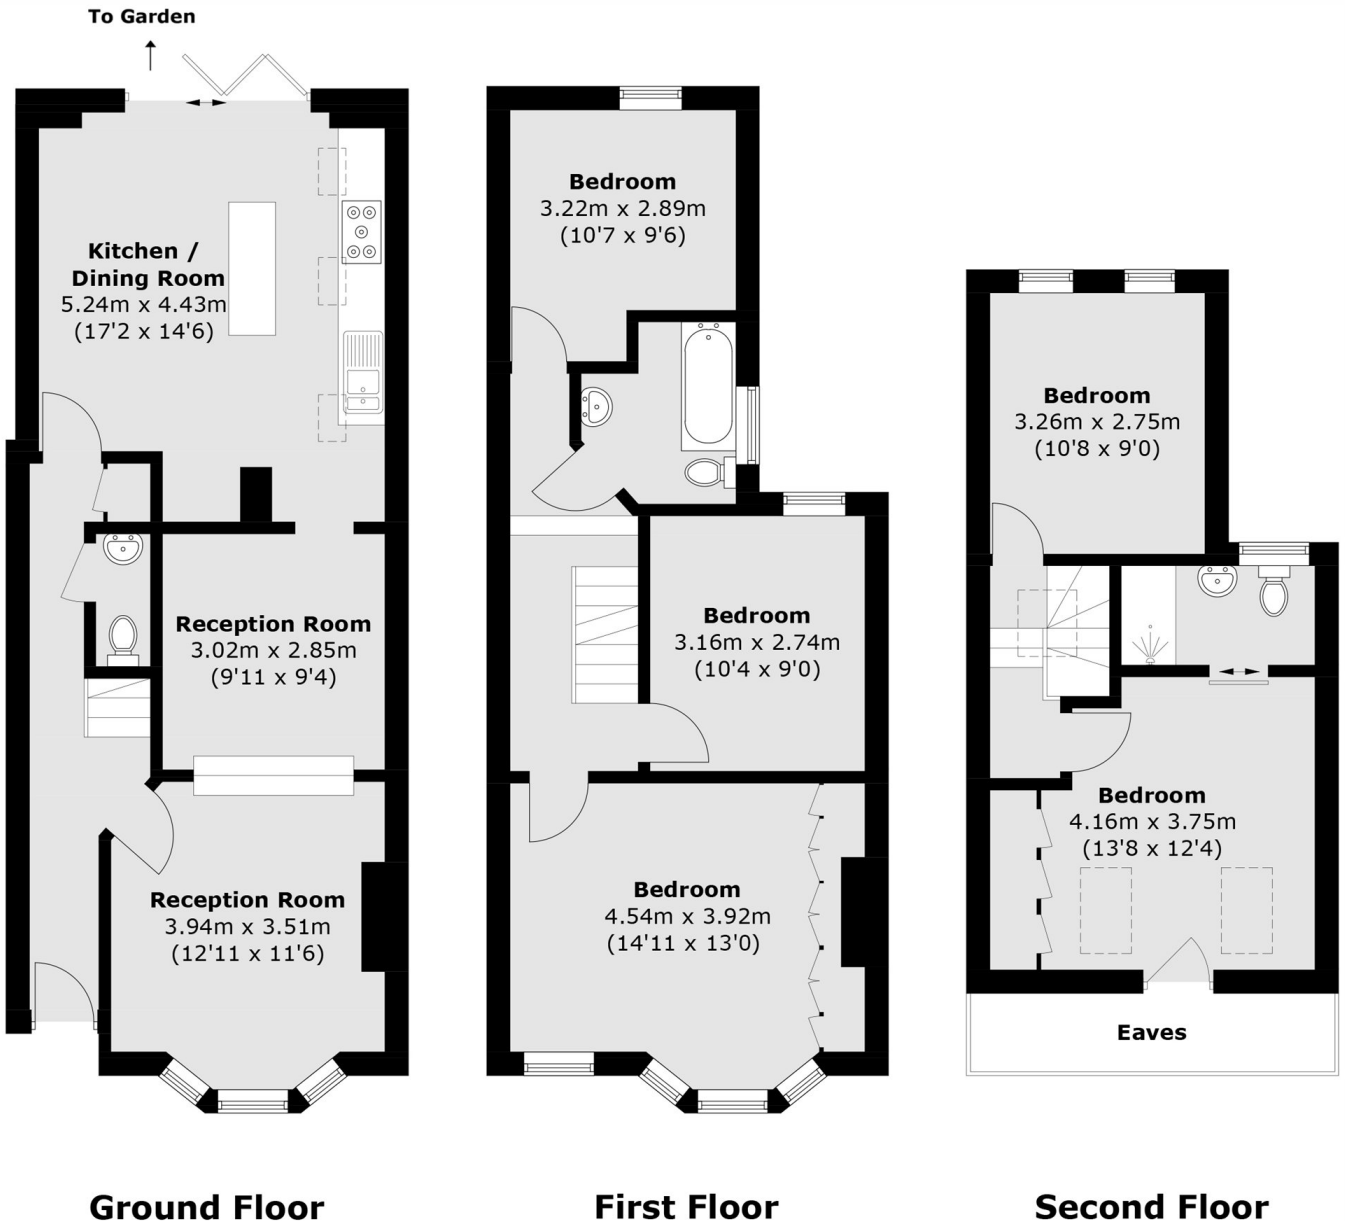

A five bedroom Victorian family home in a prime Earlsfield location.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this property is mid terrace and has been fully extended into the loft and at the rear to create wonderful living space. Accommodation comprises; entrance hall with useful downstairs W/C, spacious and well presented double reception room, kitchen with a central island which also serves as a dining area offering an excellent entertaining space; bi-fold doors lead to a generous low maintenance garden. On the first floor there is a modern family bathroom and three well proportioned bedrooms; the largest bedroom offering plenty of built in wardrobes. Stairs lead to the second floor where you will find two more bedrooms; the principle bedroom boasting an en-suite bathroom and built in wardrobes.

Located on a much sought after road in Earlsfield, the property is well placed for some of the most desirable schools in the area and is 0.6 miles from Earlsfield mainline station. The green open spaces of Wandsworth Common are close by as well as the array of trendy cafés, shops and restaurants Garratt Lane has to offer.

Total area (approx.): 132.7 sq. m (1,428.3 sq. ft)
