Occupying an elevated position on the edge of Kingsbridge, Park House is a thoughtfully designed and stylish contemporary home that nestles comfortably in its bucolic setting whilst taking full advantage of the breathtaking views.

Re-developed by the current owner, and completed about 14 years ago, the quality of construction and fixtures and fittings is exceptional and includes a Delabole slate roof, bespoke joinery and Mandarin Stone tiling throughout.

The ground floor accommodation is extensive with expansive glazing and access from all the main living areas onto the paved terrace that wraps around the house and seamlessly links the inside with the views across the grounds to the estuary beyond. The handmade kitchen has a vaulted ceiling and bespoke units fitted with integrated appliances and walk-in pantry. The living room has a fine fireplace with log effect fire and beyond is the principal bedroom with en-suite shower room. In addition there is a sitting room, two en-suite bedrooms, a utility room, boiler room and office which overlooks the sheltered inner courtyard that enjoys the afternoon sun.

On the first floor is a galleried landing off which there are two further bedrooms, a shower room and snug with steps up to a roof terrace.

The grounds at Park House are a significant part of what makes this property so special. Ornamental grasses frame the peninsula terrace offering seclusion and privacy. The land slopes away from the house and beyond the gardens are fenced paddocks which extend to about 9 acres with two large ponds. A gate at the bottom provides direct water access via a slipway with running mooring and there is also a jetty.

The driveway sweeps down to the house where there is ample parking and access to the double garage.

In all, Park House offer the opportunity of a lifestyle in a high quality house in one of the most sought-after locations in the South Hams.
