In Detail

Guide price £550,000 to £575,000 A stunning two double bedroom Victorian maisonette, offering a rare combination of generous living space, a privately fenced section of a shared garden, and off street parking, perfectly positioned close to leafy open spaces, excellent transport links, and a vibrant selection of local shops and cafés.

As the building is so grand and impressive, it comes as no surprise that the living spaces are huge, with wonderful high ceilings amplifying the space and large windows inviting plenty of natural light.

Spanning 948 sq ft over two floors, character and warmth have been thoughtfully added throughout, with inviting, calming tones that ground you. The reception to the front is beautifully presented, measuring 18’9” x 15’2, with plenty of room to lounge and a dining area which would comfortably host a party of eight. There is a galley kitchen with plenty of storage and work counters, creating a streamlined and practical space, a utility room houses a washing machine and tumble dryer as well as additional storage for a small pantry, cleaning equipment and/or everyday essentials, further storage available in accessible loft, two generously sized double bedrooms, the primary benefitting from a wall of fitted storage and dressing table and a luxurious bathroom complete with a separate bath tub and shower.

Outside, the property benefits from a large private section of garden and off-street parking, providing both convenience and outdoor space to enjoy.

Trewsbury Road is ideally situated for commuters, with Sydenham, Lower Sydenham, and Penge East stations all within easy reach. Local amenities, green spaces, and popular restaurants are also nearby, making this an enviable location.

This impressive maisonette truly needs to be viewed to be fully appreciated.
