IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and you'll find a home that immediately impresses with its sense of space and natural light. The reception room is an inviting setting, with double glazed sash windows dressed in plantation shutters and plenty of room for both relaxing and entertaining. To the rear, the generous eat-in kitchen diner offers excellent storage and workspace alongside ample room for a dining table, creating a sociable heart of the home. From here, you have direct access to the landscaped rear garden, an attractive outdoor retreat for morning coffee, summer dining or simply unwinding at the end of the day.

Also on this level is one of the two double bedrooms, a beautifully proportioned room with a calm, restful feel. Upstairs, the principal bedroom occupies the upper floor, enjoying a particularly spacious layout with skylights drawing natural light across the room. The bathroom is smartly finished in a classic style, while throughout the apartment you'll find a cohesive finish, thoughtful presentation and the sort of proportions that are increasingly hard to find.

WHAT ELSE?

Richmond Road has a genuine neighbourhood feel, with a friendly community of residents and a well-established annual street party that reflects the area's strong sense of connection and local pride.

Francis Road is just a short stroll away and has become one of East London's most loved destinations, home to independent favourites including Marmelo Kitchen, Yardarm, Dreamhouse Records and Phlox Books. Nearby pubs such as The Heathcote & Star, The Northcote Arms and The Red Lion offer plenty of choice for relaxed evenings close to home.

Leyton and Leytonstone stations are both within easy reach for Central line connections, while Stratford is just a short journey away, opening up access to the Elizabeth line, Westfield Stratford City, Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, Here East and a huge range of cultural, sporting and dining destinations.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER..

"Great area for young couples and new families, lots of new bars, cafes and restaurants opening regularly - including development of Leyton Midland arches. Great hub and community throughout the area, lots of options for health and fitness. Francis Road has a lovely village feel and KERB street food / general market every Saturday."
