This highly regarded village is nestled in the Chiltern Hills surrounded by wonderful countryside with its famed Beech woodland. The village provides good local amenities including a pre-school and an excellent primary school. Other facilities include a classic Chiltern brick and flint public house (The Harrow), a well stocked community shop, a regular bus service, a builders' merchant, an active village hall and adjoining playing fields, plus a Doctors' surgery. For a more comprehensive range of facilities including a new shopping complex and a theatre, the town of High Wycombe lies approximately 3 miles away, where the commuter can join the M40 motorway (junction 4) and then the M25 network, or the Chiltern railway to London (Marylebone). The property also lies approximately 1½ miles from the historic Hughenden Manor, the former residence of Benjamin Disraeli which is owned and run by The National Trust.
