

Positioned on a quiet no-through road within easy reach of Reading town centre, this thoughtfully updated Victorian terrace balances period character with contemporary living. Original features, including fireplaces and exposed floorboards, sit comfortably alongside carefully considered improvements. The accommodation is arranged over two floors and includes two separate reception rooms, each centred around a feature fireplace, together with a modern fitted kitchen and a WC. Upstairs are two bedrooms, principal with en suite bathroom and access to a versatile attic room, ideal as a home office. To the rear, a south-facing garden has been landscaped for low-maintenance living, ideal for outdoor dining. The location is particularly well connected, with the riverside restaurants, cafés and shops of The Oracle within walking distance, alongside Reading's mainline station, offering fast services to London Paddington and the Elizabeth Line. Excellent road links via the M4 and a comprehensive local bus network further enhance the property's appeal.
