Earls Avenue, Folkestone, Kent, Kent, CT20 2HW

DESCRIPTION

A smart and stylish garden flat situated in an imposing, greatly admired and imposing Edwardian building, just moments from the Leas promenade. Backing on to the formal, lawned grounds of Terlingham Gardens, this most appealing flat offers fashionably presented accommodation to include a delightful sitting room, generous double bedroom, well planned Kitchen/breakfast room, sleek shower room and separate cloakroom. Off road parking is provided to the front of the building.

The Leas promenade is a mile long stretch that is steeped in history and was formerly owned by Lord Radnor. It offers a beautiful place to sit and relax. The Leas is also famous for the Grade II Listed water balanced funicular railway, presently undergoing restoration. Considered an ideal permanent or second home an internal viewing is strongly recommended.
