Just down the road you'll find Bromley's Cafe, a bustling family run cafe and, if you wander a little further you'll arrive at your new local William The Fourth. Showcasing local ales and running regular quiz, record and karaoke nights, this friendly gastropub also serves up hearty traditional eats. For something a bit different, head down to Patchworks, on Church Road. This creative community centre hosts regular makers markets, pop up food events and has a great little cafe bar of its own.

WHAT ELSE?

- Right next to Leyton Midland Road station, sits a special trio of independent restaurants and taprooms Burnt Smokehouse, Bamboo-Mat and Gravity Well Taproom. Great for a refreshment stop after your daily commute.
- Hop on your bicycle and in six minutes you'll be out in the expansive green openness of Lee Valley Park. From here you can explore North to the Walthamstow Marshes or even further into the Wetlands nature reserve.
- You'll be living equidistant from Walthamstow Leisure Centre and Leyton Leisure Centre, so hitting your fitness goals has never been easier.
