The Property

This lovely three bedroom detached bungalow is located at the end of the cul-de-sac and is placed for easy access to nearby towns of Northallerton and Bedale and Junction 51 of the A1M.

The property opens into a porch that has space for shoes and hanging coats, to the right of the porch is the kitchen which comprises of wall and base units with work surface over and tiled splashback, a stainless steel sink and drainer, integrated fridge and freezer, electric oven and hob with extractor hood over and space for a washing machine, there is also a useful store cupboard and a side door to the driveway.

The lounge is located off the porch and is a lovely bright and cosy room with an electric living flame fire set on a tiled hearth and wooden surround and a door to the inner hall which has doors to the three bedrooms, bathroom and storage cupboard. Bedroom one is a good sized double and has a built in wardrobe, bedroom 2 is another double bedroom and both have views over the private rear garden. Bedroom 3 is a good size single or a home office and has French doors leading to the rear garden.

To the outside there is a block paved driveway to the front, which leads down the side of the property to the car port and to the large detached garage which has an up and over door, personal door to the side and light and power points.

To the front there is also a lawned garden with a small rockery and to the rear is a lovely private garden with patio area, raised decking area along with raised beds with various plants and shrubs and there is also a Summer house and a garden shed.

Location

Morton on Swale is a large village and civil parish in the Hambleton district of North Yorkshire, England. It lies on the A684 road about 4 miles west of the County Town of Northallerton. It is less than 1 mile (1.6 km) to the village of Ainderby Steeple. As the name suggests it lies on the River Swale.

Notwithstanding its name, Ainderby Steeple Church of England Primary School is situated on Station Lane, Morton-on-Swale which is within the catchment area of Northallerton School, which provides secondary education and sixth form facilities. Also located in the village near the Primary School is The Dales School, which is a special co-educational school for those with severe and complex learning requirements. It provides some post 16 years old education.
