56 Spitalfield Lane

Chichester

56 Spitalfield Lane is a one-bedroom ground floor flat forming part of a characterful Victorian semi-detached property, built in the traditional Sussex flint and brick style that is characteristic of this part of Chichester. The flat is offered for sale leasehold, with a share of freehold available at additional cost, and is in need of some internal updating and redecoration—presenting an excellent opportunity for a buyer seeking a well-located property to improve and personalise.

The flat is accessed from the side of the building, with the front door opening directly into the kitchen. This is a practical space fitted with units, worktops, an inset sink, and housing the boiler. There is also a large storage cupboard and a door leading through to the bathroom, which is fitted with a bath and shower over, WC, and wash basin.

Spitalfield Lane sits on the eastern side of Chichester city centre, within easy walking distance of the pedestrianised shopping precinct, St Richard's Hospital and the University of Chichester. The city offers a wide range of shopping, restaurants, cafes and leisure facilities, as well as the Pallant House Gallery and the Chichester Festival Theatre. To the north of the city, the Goodwood Estate hosts a number of well-known events including the Festival of Speed and Goodwood Revival, as well as the Glorious Goodwood horseracing festival. The South Downs National Park is approximately 2.5 miles to the north, and Chichester Harbour, Chichester Marina and the beaches at West Wittering are within easy reach to the south-west. Chichester station provides rail services along the coast to Portsmouth and Brighton and to London Victoria, with bus stops also nearby.
