

An impressive and deceptively spacious 3 bedroom detached property situated in a peaceful and popular village setting. The accommodation includes 3 double bedrooms with the main bedroom en-suite alongside having a walk-in dressing room. The property is beautifully appointed and includes flexible accommodation with bedrooms on the ground floor and first floor and likewise a ground floor sitting room plus a particularly spacious open-plan living space (formally an art studio).

The property is accessed via a sweeping driveway at the side, where there is provision for numerous vehicles to park alongside a turning space. The vendors have thoughtfully landscaped the garden to provide numerous seating areas. There is a decked area wrapping around the property with a lawned area below. There is a door providing access into the garden room, which is open-plan to the ground floor sitting room and enjoys a wonderful country outlook. The sitting room is a great size and has a door through to the inner hallway and access to two of the bedrooms, both of which are spacious double rooms with the main bedroom featuring the stylish en-suite and walk-in dressing area.

The ground floor accommodation also includes an open kitchen/breakfast room with a stylish modern kitchen with deep blue doors. There is a hallway with the stairs to the first floor, double external doors and a recess ideal for a cosy study area. There is a door into the utility room which is ideal for coats and boots with a door through to the integral garage.

On the first floor, there is the hugely impressive dual aspect living room, which is a fantastic and flexible space with some lovely country views. There is a great deal of storage in the eaves, a door into a well appointed shower room. Adjoining this is another double bedroom, which is a great size with great country views once again. The layout of the property would lend itself to multi-generational living or alternatively a large family home.
