DESCRIPTION

Jessamine House is an individual, detached, village residence with origins dating back to circa 1890s formerly the village wheelwrights, with a Victorian and later additions. The house presents elevations of brick and UPVC weather boarding, set with UPVC double glazing beneath a pitched tiled roof. The well proportioned accommodation is arranged over two floors described in more detail as follows, entrance hall with parquet floor, opening into a triple aspect split level sitting room with sliding door out to the rear garden. A separate dining room is currently used as a home office with extensive fitted book shelving and enjoying a double aspect. The rear lobby/utility has space and plumbing for washing machine and tumble dryer with a door to the garden and to a cloakroom. The triple kitchen/breakfast room is fitted with Quartz work surfaces, Stoves range style cooker with electric ovens and Calor gas burners, integrated Whirlpool dishwasher, space and electric points for upright fridge/freezers, tiled floor, door to outside and a pleasant outlook across the garden. Arranged over the first floor, split-level landing are four bedrooms, bedroom one with useful boxroom with window, that could offer en suite potential subject to any relevant consents. A bathroom is fitted with a modern white suite with a panelled bath, integrated shower over and part tiled surround. A separate shower room is also fitted with a modern white suite.

GARDENS & GROUNDS

Outside, a gravel drive provides parking for four cars with EV charging point. A detached double garage has been converted to a studio/gym retaining a section of storage to front for lawnmower and bikes. An area of front lawned garden is planted with hydrangeas and climbing wisteria.

The rear, neatly tended garden, complements the accommodation well, also laid to lawn with paved and block paved patios, running to two sides, with established rose beds and box hedging, magnificent Magnolia tree, kitchen garden area and fruit trees including apple, pear, cherry and plum. The whole is fenced and enclosed.
