The Property

Having undergone an extensive programme of refurbishment, with absolutely no stone left unturned, this magnificent two-bedroom mid-terrace property situated in a cul-de-sac location offers beautifully presented accommodation, thoughtfully curated to provide the very best in modern living. The property has been meticulously transformed with attention to detail evident throughout. The improvements include a new roof, replacement windows, an electrical rewire and new plumbing and central heating system, providing buyers with the reassurance of a home that has been comprehensively upgraded. At the heart of the property is a stunning newly fitted kitchen, thoughtfully designed with both style and practicality in mind, incorporating a range of fitted appliances for added convenience. The accommodation further benefits from two generously proportioned double bedrooms, both offering excellent space for bedroom furnishings and storage, alongside a beautifully appointed modern bathroom. Larger than your typical family bathroom, this impressive space provides an enhanced sense of room and comfort. Externally, the rear garden has also been carefully remodelled to create an attractive and versatile outdoor space. Featuring a paved entertaining area, ideal for outdoor dining and socialising, alongside a lawned garden, the space provides the perfect setting for enjoying the warmer months. This is a truly exceptional opportunity to acquire a wonderfully refurbished home. Perfect for first-time buyers, downsizers or those seeking a stylish, turnkey property, early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the quality of accommodation on offer.
